

Emerging Stars Strategies

Short individual biographies of team members

Juliana Hansveden, CFA began her career as a research analyst at BlackRock in London where she covered European equities, later moving to the Global Emerging Markets team, where she specialised in Emerging Asian equities. Juliana joined Nordea Investment Management in 2014 from AP1, First Swedish National Pension Fund, where she was assistant portfolio manager and research analyst in the Global Equities team based in Stockholm. At Nordea Juliana worked as co-Portfolio Manager to Jorry on Emerging Stars. Juliana went on extended maternity leave late 2016. Juliana earned a MSc in Economics and Business from the Stockholm School of Economics in 2007.

Ms. Emily Leveille, CFA joined the Nordea Fundamental Equities team in 2015 and has been responsible for the investments in the Latin America region. Prior to joining Nordea, Emily worked as equity analyst for Ashmore Group in Washington, DC, focusing on both small and large-cap strategies. Before joining Ashmore, Emily worked for the consulting firm Frontier Strategy Group, advising multinationals on their strategies in Latin America. Emily holds a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations from New York University and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.

Mr. Jakob Zierau has been with the Nordea since 2009 and joined the Fundamental Equities franchise in 2012 with responsibility of the investments in Central Eastern Europe, Middle East and Africa (CEEMEA region) and for the launch of Nordea's Global Frontier Fund. Prior to joining the Fundamental Equities boutique, Jakob worked as an Assistant for Nordea Private Banking Equity advice and later on as an Investment Advisor at Nordea Private Banking in Luxembourg. Jakob holds a Bachelor in Business Economy and a MSc in Financial Strategic Management from Copenhagen Business School.